Managing Director's Review

Throughout the whole past year, the world's financial markets were marked by contradictions. In the US, finance already had a promising growth outlook.

Due to internal development reasons, the US however decided to reduce reviving their finance and to pare down monthly bond purchases by 10 billion USD. This information, starting already from its anticipation, was a bad signal to many currencies in the emerging markets.

Among our marketing areas, it hit worst to Russia and India, whose currencies have weakened remarkably, by approx. 20%, since the fluctuation started in May 2013. At the very moment, the situation in Russia has become quite acute, but we hope that it will soon calm down and the Russian Ruble exchange rate will return to a higher level.

Europe is still in stagnation, due to the high exchange rate of Euro currency, hampering the growth to start. In the developing countries, the growth has continued, though slower than earlier due to the swing of the exchange rates.

During the recently ended financial period, our position in the markets however strengthened, thanks to our reference plants. In our sector, competition is tough. Many local providers are clear threats to us, since our machines and services originate from the area of strong Euro currency. In order to maintain our gained market position, we have to be able to further develop our supply and services.

In the milk packaging sector, the current trend is to offer the customers smaller and smaller packages. Through smaller package sizes, more customers have an opportunity to become milk consumers at a very low cost. For cutting the unit price down, we introduced in the markets as small as 100ml packages, which have been attracted great interest in many countries. We believe this will lower the purchasing threshold and enable more and more disadvantaged people to pour a dash of milk in their evening tea.

Thanks to our recent reference plants and by the help of new products, we trust the positive development in our market areas will continue this year. We hope that the exchange rates will calm down, making a dawning growth in the world finance possible.

As I write this review, we are facing a new great threat, the dispute between Russia and Ukraine over Crimea. As Russia is a really important market area to us, this crisis and its results could have a notable impact on our company too. I hope that all parties will hold their temper and find a peaceful solution to the dispute.

The past year required a lot of efforts from all of us. I wish to thank our personnel for the successful work done to reach our set targets. I also thank sincerely our customers, shareholders and other partners for the cooperation during the past year.
